

Discover Tyntesfield

Developing Family Learning with the National Trust

Would you like to enjoy some time as a family at Tyntesfield? Want to help others to discover more?

Tyntesfield is a 540 acre estate cared for by the National Trust and located 7 miles from Bristol.

We have a fantastic opportunity for 5 families to get involved in the development of exciting new interpretation at Tyntesfield. You will help other families to discover more about the wildlife at this amazing Victorian estate.

We can offer:

- Free entry to Tyntesfield on three different dates (28 March, 17 July and one other day of your choice in summer 2010)
- Lunch and refreshments on both consultation days
- Free places for all the family to attend a creative workshop to develop interpretation material for Tyntesfield (optional)

About you and your family:

- At least one member of your family is aged 5 to 11
- You are available to attend two consultation sessions at Tyntesfield:
 - Sunday 28 March, 10am – 2:30pm
 - Saturday 17 July, 10am – 2:30pm

Interested? Contact Katie Laidlaw at katie.laidlaw@nationaltrust.org.uk or call 01275 461963 to find out more. The deadline for applications is the 20 March 2010.
